News & Notes

Next Sunday: The Choir brings the Pepper Choplin cantata, Once Upon a Night in the 9am service. The Advent Festival follows the service, with crafts & activities in Fellowship Hall. Enjoy a ham & turkey dinner at noon, so stay for that or come back (and please bring place settings for the meal, to help with our interest in 'going green'). There's also a Christmas concert by the St. Thomas Dulcimer Society at 1.30pm!

Indulge your inner pastry chef at a class (with hands-on practice!) on holiday cake decorating—offered by Ella Bella Bakery on Dec 11, 10.30am, in Fellowship Hall. Invite a friend, and please register on the hallway board so there are enough supplies.

Volunteers are still needed for the Live Nativity on Dec 10 during the Christkindlmarkt. See any Community Impact Team member for more info.

The midweek study meets 7-8pm via zoom on Nov 30, Dec 7 & 14, then will be on hiatus until mid-January. For info on connecting, check the website.

November Mission: Baskets of Thanks

The Christmas party for the children from Aveanna Medical Daycare will be held at the daycare center—and you can brighten Christmas for these kids by donating a gift. For info on doing this, check the website, or contact the office for a link.

Christmas cookies for shut-ins—you can help with baking and/or delivering cookies by contacting a member of the Community Impact Team.

Support CCU this Christmas with a gift of music (the 2022 entry of Joy to the Burg) or cards (displayed in Fellowship Hall). Claire Gallagher has more info.

Advent at home

Try making an Advent wreath with some greens and 5 candles—4 on the perimeter of a circle, with a fifth candle in the circle's middle. A new candle gets lit each week, as each candle highlights a different aspect of Advent. Passages listed below can be read as part of the lighting; you can also read these portions during the week to spark thinking on each of the Advent themes. An Advent wreath will be part of Sunday worship at St. Thomas, and you may hear one or more of these passages read as part of those services, too.

First week: Hope

Isaiah 49:1-7; Psalm 149:1-11; Zechariah 9:9-13; Jeremiah 23:1-8; Jeremiah 33:14-22

Second week: Love

John 3:16-19; Psalm 24:1-10; Isaiah 7:10-14; Romans 8:35-39; 1 John 4:7-11; 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Third week: Joy

Matthew 2:10-11; Psalm 146:5-10; Isaiah 35:1-10; Luke 2:8-14; Psalm 94:17-19

Fourth week: Peace

Isaiah 9:1-7; Luke 2:1-14; John 14:23-27; Isaiah 26:1-4

On Christmas Eve, the fifth candle—the Christ Candle—signifies how light has come into the world (John 1:1-9).
